Director General NCC

FOREWORD

1. NCC plays a vital role in growth and development of country by grooming its most precious resource, the youth. In order to attain our national goals it is imperative that our training encapsulates and embeds the qualities and attributes in our cadets.
2. For NCC cadets, Camps are the most exciting and meaningful part of training, wherein cadets get exposure to the merits of NCC. Camps are organized at various levels i.e. Unit, Group HQ, Directorate and Republic Day (RD) Camp. These Camps serve to motivate the young students. NCC must conduct the Camps in an ingenious, pragmatic, transparent, flawless and efficient manner at all levels. A large number of dignitaries visit NCC Republic Day Camp an annual event for the NCC Cadets held at HQ DG NCC Camp at Delhi Cantonment. During this Camp Inter Directorate Competitions are conducted which contribute towards the award of prestigious Republic Day Banner. For such a prestigious Camp it is must that modalities for conduct of the competition be well defined. This book has been compiled in two volumes to achieve this aim.
3. Volume I of Standing Instructions lays down the detailed organization of RD Camp, norms of administration and details of training to be carried out during RD Camp. The duties of NCC Directorates, Camp Appointments, Officers & Cadets has been worked out based on the experience and good practices.
4. Volume II of Standing Instructions lays down detailed rules for conduct of all Inter Directorate Competitions in NCC.
5. While the last edition of Volume I was published in 1994, Volume II was issued in 2010. Various changes & modification have been done due to environment realities, feedback received & aspiration of the cadets, which yielded in positive dynamism in the organisation. There was a felt need to compile these modifications and produce an updated Standing Instruction (Red Book).
6. I am confident that this new edition of Red Book will serve to guide all in conduct of competitions and make NCC Republic Day Camp a professionally executed event.

- (f) Floor of the cook houses will be 'Lipaied' regularly and kept scrupulously clean.

One person is required permanently in the QM Stores for sorting out rations and carrying them to cook houses. The other two are used for cleaning the utensils and helping in food preparation.

8. Preparation of Food

- (a) Casual labour will be employed by QM to clean Dal and Rice.
- (b) Rice, if it has lot of husk on it, will be sent to the mill for polishing. .

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FIRE FIGHTING DURING NCC REPUBLIC DAY CAMP

General

1. The prevention of fire is of vital importance and should be the first consideration of all. Prevention of fire is far more important than fighting the fire. Most of the fires can be prevented by common sense and good discipline and it is most important that the highest possible standard of fire prevention should be achieved and maintained so that losses by fire can be reduced to a minimum.

2. All fires are of small size in the beginning. They grow rapidly into large fires. Speed in tackling a fire is, therefore, of paramount importance. Even if fire is not completely put out its chance of growing into a still bigger fire would, however, be eliminated.

Compliance

3. These orders are required to be read by all officers and PI Staff within 48 hours of their arrival in the Camp.

4. It is duty of all Contingent Commanders to read out and fully explain the contents of this order to all the Cadets.

5. Neglect to comply with the orders contained here-in will constitute a breach of complying with the orders under the Army Act in case of Service Personnel. In the case of non-compliance by civilians, it will result in appropriate departmental disciplinary action taken against them.

6. A copy of this order will be prominently displayed in the following offices :-

- (a) Deputy Camp Commandant.
- (b) MTO.
- (c) Adjutant.

(c) The Station Commander shoulders the overall responsibility of ensuring that all units/Commands in the station are adequately protected against fire risks. The Station Fire Committee works on behalf and under the orders of the Station Commander.

8. Responsibility

- (a) The ultimate responsibility for the efficient fire fighting arrangements in the Camp rests with the Camp Commandant assisted by the Dy Camp Comdt who is the Fire Fighting Officer.
- (b) Every officer, employee and cadet has an individual responsibility to be fire minded, in that it is his/her duty to ensure that whilst he himself/she herself does nothing to prejudice the effective in the fire fighting measures he/she does everything in his/her power to preserve and promote it. To achieve this aim all personnel should do the following.
- (i) Must be always alert and vigilant.
 - (ii) Should have a complete picture of the nature and extent of Government property in the Camp.

In case funds are surrendered marks will be reduced, which will be awarded on the following criteria: -

- (i) Funds allotted
- (ii) Funds utilized
- (iii) Funds surrendered
- (iv) % of Fund Surrendered = $\frac{\text{Funds Surrendered} \times 100}{\text{Funds Allotted}}$

(c) Surplus Reported. Provisioning in NCC is based on the cadets' enrolment planned in advance. In case clothing are rendered surplus unless there is a definite reason and a sanction has been obtained from Logistics Directorate, it will be presumed that cadets are not being kitted as per scales despite clothing held in stock. Hence percentage of surplus clothing against enrolled strength will be calculated. The Directorate having minimum surplus will get the highest marks. Based on the following formula: -

Surplus Clothing x 100
Authorised Cadet Enrolment planned

$$\frac{\text{No of vehicles maintained} \times 100}{\text{Budget utilised}}$$

(b) Down-gradation Vs Backloading of Vehicles. It is seen that time lag between declaration of a vehicle as class V and its final disposal takes enormous time resulting in non-reflection of the same in vehicle casualty return. Thus, not being catered for provisioning at right time resulting in deficiency of vehicle in unit. Efficiency of back loading would be established as per formula given below: -

$$\frac{\text{Vehicle held for back - loading} \times 100}{\text{No of Vehicles declared Class V in a year}}$$

(a) Equipment (Navy/Air). The serviceable state of equipment is one of the most important indicators for imparting proper training to cadets in a Directorate. Hence percentage of serviceable equipment versus off-road state of equipment will be an important input for assessment for RDC banner. The basis of calculation would be: -

$$\frac{\text{Total Equipment of various Categories held on charge} \times 100}{\text{Off-road Equipment Held on Ground}}$$

(b) Repairs undertaken and budget asked. To be worked out on the same basis as being done for vehicles.

(c) Ammunition Expenditure. Expenditure of ammunition is an important indicator of the firing practices conducted in a Directorate. Hence, percentage of ammunition expended versus equipment held will indicate the firing carried out. Basis for assessment would be: -

Selection of Cadets for Nau Sainik Camp

5. The norms for nomination of cadets have been based on the presumption that each Directorate would field the best team for the RDC and the AINSC for RD Banner events. The team members are selected from amongst the best cadets in the naval units. Since each directorate has different number of Naval Units, directorates with more number of naval units get advantage over others with lesser number of naval units as they have bigger choice in selecting the cadets for the AINSC thereby have better chances of performing better than others.

6. To overcome the disparity, participation of all the units in a directorate in forming the directorate team for RDC and AINSC is mandatory.

7. The directorate team will be formed by fielding the average number of cadets from each naval unit of the directorate. The total number of cadets in the directorate team will be divided by the number of naval units in the directorate. The lower full number will be the minimum number of cadets from each Directorate. Directorates will have the privilege of fielding the balance cadets from any of the naval unit. However, in such cases, only one cadet per naval unit can be fielded.

Example:

If a directorate with 5 NUs will have team = 28 SD and 12 SW
Average number of cadets per unit
(SD) = $28/5=5.6$ R/O 5 (Lower full number)
(SW) = $12/5=2.4$ R/O 2 (Lower full number)
Dte will field 5 SD & 2 SW per Naval Unit = $5 \times 5=25$ SD & $5 \times 2=10$ SW
Balance Cadets = $28-25 = 3$ SD & $12-10 = 2$ SW
i.e total 5 Cdt
Dte will field these 5 Cadet@ 1 Cdt/Unit = 5 (3SD + 2 SW).

Note: If the number of balance cadets is less than no of units in a Directorate. In this case, Directorate can pick up the cadets from any of its naval units @ 1 cadet/naval unit of its choice.

8. Contingents are to nominate cadets for various events in advance and a consolidated list of the teams including reserve cadets is to be handed over to the camp Commandant on arrival. The composition of the teams for competition will be as follows:

S No	Event	Event Strength All Nominated
		SD	SW
(a)	Service Exam (Written)	70%	70%
(b)	Seamanship (Practical)	30%	30%
(c)	Boat Pulling	8 (including 2 reserve)	8 (including 2 reserve)
(d)	Boat Rigging	8	NIL
(e)	Shooting / Firing	3 (including 1 reserve)	3 (including 1 reserve)
(f)	Drill (AINSC)	13 SD/SW {09 SD + 03 SW cadets (03 ranks x 04 files) with 01 Parade Cdr (SD /SW)}
(g)	Semaphore/Communication	50%	50%
(h)	Ship Modelling*	3 (1 Main + 2 Helpers) (At least one SW is mandatory in the team)
(i)	Best Cadet SD & SW	34	17
(j)	Line Area	All available SD cadets
(k)	Health & Hygiene	02	02

9. Selection of Cadets for RD Competition during AINSC. The rules for selection and participation of cadet in RD Competition are as follows: -

- (a) Directorates to nominate cadets for each competition. No draw of lots will be held for any event.
- (b) At the time of joining the camp the Directorates will submit the list of cadets participating in the various events.
- (c) Each Cadet will have to participate in at least one RD Banner Competition.

10. Marking System. Directorate scoring highest aggregate in all the competitions will be awarded first position in Inter Directorate Naval Wing Competitions. Points towards RD-Banner will be subsequently awarded out of 100 points on the percentage system up to second decimal place i.e. based on actual marks scored in the RD Banner competition score.

This process will be repeated with the second bar, when the model has turned through 270°, the Judges will place the second aluminium bar tangential to the outer side of the model and parallel to the shorter side of the water tank and leave it also on deck. Guidelines on Safety and Security

14. Introduction. The safety rules to be observed during the practices and the finals of Regatta are given in the succeeding paragraphs. These safety rules are the guidelines for the safety precautions to be observed by officers, PI staff and cadets participating in this Regatta. These rules are compiled from Seamanship Manual (BR 67) 1995 edition and various relevant sources.

15. Whilst every effort has been made to make these safety rules as comprehensive as possible to cover all contingencies, it is not possible to cover all contingencies in such situations. Therefore, personnel are advised to revert to advice/instructions tendered in Seamanship Manual (BR 67) and other relevant publications and the dictates of common sense as circumstances of the situation may warrant. Where, for some reasons, there has been a departure in these rules from those laid down in Seamanship Manual Vol I and II, the Seamanship Manual will supersede these instructions.

16. Conditions of Boats and Fittings. It is to be ensured that the boats designated as main and stand by for the regatta(boats and dinghies) are generally in overall good condition and there are no serious hull defects that may affect the seaworthiness of the boat during its employment during the Regatta. Special attention should be paid to the following aspects: -

- (a) The hull should be waterproof to ensure that there is no possibility of ingress of water, which can, in any way, endanger its safety.

- (b) All damaged items especially planks, keel box and buoyancy tanks etc are repaired properly and have been inspected.
- (c) All the necessary fittings required for pulling and sailing, such as mast, sails, thwarts stretchers etc, are in state.
- (d) The bilge rails of boat and dinghies and the lifelines of boat are ok.
- (e) All the securing gear such as ringbolts, towing bollards, wires, ropes have been checked.
- (f) The rudder and its fittings are well secured and the tiller is provided with its split pin to ensure that it does not slip out whilst in use.
- (g) The plugs of the boats are properly fitted and the boat is watertight.

17. Checking the Equipment. Before taking out the whalers/dinghies for use during the practices/heats/regatta, coxswains is to ensure that the boat is correctly rigged. Coxswain is to doubly ensure the following: -

- (a) Plug. Is to be secured in its hold properly with no leakage.
- (b) Oars. Full complement of oars with one spare oar is to be ensured. It is particularly important that a dinghy equipped with only one pair of sculls should carry a spare oar.
- (c) Crutches (Single-Banked Boats). Full complement of oars with one spare to be ensured. Crutches are to be secured by its lanyard to the boat.
- (d) Stretcher. Is to be fitted in place for each thwart.
- (e) Rudder. Is to be shipped with lanyard secured to after ringbolt.
- (f) Tiller. Is to be shipped and secured with its split pin.
- (g) Painter. This is to be shackled to the stem ringbolt.
- (h) Towing Bollard. If portable, it is to be in the boat with its clamp & pin.
- (j) Wearing of Life Jackets. The crew is to wear half inflated Life jackets at all the time during sailing/pulling.

18. Conduct of the Crew in the Boat. When entering a boat, the crew should step on thwarts they should avoid stepping on the gunwale and move carefully in the boat. Movement of personnel in the boat must be kept to the absolute essential when underway. Even when the boat is alongside, movements inside the boat must be controlled and orderly. The crew member or passenger in the boat should not lean or rest any part of his body on the gunwale nor should any part of his body extend outside the hull of the boat except when specifically required to balance the boat during sailing.

19. Loading of Boats. The boat should not be loaded with personnel or material beyond the stipulated capacity. The maximum of personnel that may be embarked in boats is given below: -

- (a) Whaler - 10 Cadets
- (b) Dinghy - 03 Cadets

20. In addition to reducing loading to the number of personnel specified above, due heed must be paid to the positioning of personnel/material in the boat to ensure that the boat remains on an even keel. Extra care while loading a boat is to be exercised so that boat does not become top heavy and therefore unstable.

21. Weighing of Boats. All the Boats participating in the race are to be weighed independently. Boats are to be of equal weight by adding sand bags in the lighter boat.

22. Precautions During Sailing.

- (a) Sheets should be kept in hand and not belayed.
- (b) All the boat crew to wear half inflated life jackets at all the times while sailing/pulling.
- (c) When sailing, no one should stand on the thwarts or climb the mast.
- (d) If the gear is fouled aloft and cannot be cleared with a boat hook, crew must stand on the bottom boards while clearing the foul.
- (e) Alternatively, the sails are to be lowered to clear it.

23. Handling in Rough Weather. Attention of the coxswains is drawn to the condition that may occur during sailing in rough weather. The precautions and remedial action that should be taken as laid down under these headings in Seamanship Manual (BR 67) page 5-77 to 5-92. All the coxswains and crew are to be fully conversant with these actions and must be able to put them into practice if the situation warrants it.

24. Drop Keel. In a small boat, when keel is lowered, it lowers the center of gravity of the boat and makes the boat more stabilized. When the keel is lowered, the resistance offered by the water to its surface reduces any tendency of the boat to roll but when the boat is under sail and making leeway, this lateral resistance will produce a capsizing movement. The movement is not appreciable under normal conditions of beating and reaching but may become dangerous if the boat is blown broadside to leeward by a sudden squall or if she yaws badly or broaches to when running. The drop keel should always be raised if there is chance of the boat running aground because if it hits the bottom not only might it become bent which might prevent it from being raised, it may also capsize the boat or even split her open.

25. Safety Boat. A minimum of one power boat should always remain available as safety boat during the conduct of the regatta. The safety boat should carry the following: -

- (a) One swimmer qualified in life saving.
- (b) Two life buoys.
- (c) Six spare life jackets.

26. Safety Officer. A safety and rescue officer is to be detailed by name by conducting Directorate. This officer will be responsible for ensuring safety during practices and during the Regatta.

27. Conclusion. The above rules are only general guidelines for the safety of these expeditions, they are by no means comprehensive and are to be read in conjunction with Manual of Seamanship (BR 67) 1995 edition and other relevant publications. Where there has been a departure in these rules from those laid down in the Manual of Seamanship 1995 edition, the Seamanship manual will supersede these instructions.

Guidelines on Safety and Security

12. Introduction. The safety rules to be observed during the practices and the finals of Regatta are given in the succeeding paragraphs. These safety rules are the guidelines for the safety precautions to be observed by officers, PI staff and cadets participating in this Regatta. These rules are compiled from Seamanship Manual (BR 67) 1995 edition and various relevant sources.

13. Whilst every effort has been made to make these safety rules as comprehensive as possible to cover all contingencies, it is not possible to cover all contingencies in such situations. Therefore, personnel are advised to revert to advice/instructions tendered in Seamanship Manual (BR 67) and other relevant publications and the dictates of common sense as circumstances of the situation may warrant. Where, for some reasons, there has been a departure in these rules from those laid down in Seamanship Manual Vol I and II, the Seamanship Manual will supersede these instructions.

14. Conditions of Boats and Fittings. It is to be ensured that the boats designated as main and stand by for the regatta(boats and dinghies) are generally in overall good condition and there are no serious hull defects that may affect the seaworthiness of the boat during its employment during the Regatta. Special attention should be paid to the following aspects: -

- (a) The hull should be waterproof to ensure that there is no possibility of ingress of water, which can, in any way, endanger its safety.
- (b) All damaged items especially planks, keel box and buoyancy tanks etc are repaired properly and have been inspected.
- (c) All the necessary fittings required for pulling and sailing, such as mast, sails, thwarts stretchers etc, are in state.

- (d) The bilge rails of boat and dinghies and the lifelines of boat are ok.
- (e) All the securing gear such as ringbolts, towing bollards, wires, ropes have been checked.
- (f) The rudder and its fittings are well secured and the tiller is provided with its split pin to ensure that it does not slip out whilst in use.
- (g) The plugs of the boats are properly fitted and the boat is watertight.

15. Checking the Equipment. Before taking out the whalers/dinghies for use during the practices/heats/regatta, coxswains is to ensure that the boat is correctly rigged. Coxswain is to doubly ensure the following: -

- (a) Plug. Is to be secured in its hold properly with no leakage.
- (b) Oars. Full complement of oars with one spare oar is to be ensured. It is particularly important that a dinghy equipped with only one pair of sculls should carry a spare oar.
- (c) Crutches (Single-Banked Boats). Full complement of oars with one spare to be ensured. Crutches are to be secured by its lanyard to the boat.
- (d) Stretcher. Is to be fitted in place for each thwart.
- (e) Rudder. Is to be shipped with lanyard secured to after ringbolt.
- (f) Tiller. Is to be shipped and secured with its split pin.
- (g) Painter. This is to be shackled to the stem ringbolt.
- (h) Towing Bollard. If portable, it is to be in the boat with its clamp & pin.
- (j) Wearing of Life Jackets. The crew is to wear half inflated Life jackets at all the time during sailing/pulling.

16. Conduct of the Crew in the Boat. When entering a boat, the crew should step on thwarts they should avoid stepping on the gunwale and move carefully in the boat. Movement of personnel in the boat must be kept to the absolute essential when underway. Even when the boat is alongside, movements inside the boat must be controlled and orderly. The crew member or passenger in the boat should not lean or rest any part of his body on the gunwale nor should any part of his body extend outside the hull of the boat except when specifically required to balance the boat during sailing.

17. Loading of Boats. The boat should not be loaded with personnel or material beyond the stipulated capacity. The maximum of personnel that may be embarked in boats is given below: -

- (a) Whaler - 10 Cadets
- (b) Dinghy - 03 Cadets

18. In addition to reducing loading to the number of personnel specified above, due heed must be paid to the positioning of personnel/material in the boat to ensure that the boat remains on an even keel. Extra care while loading a boat is to be exercised so that boat does not become too heavy and therefore unstable.

19. Precautions During Sailing.

- (f) Sheets should be kept in hand and not belayed.
- (g) All the boat crew to wear half inflated life jackets at all the times while sailing/pulling.
- (h) When sailing, no one should stand on the thwarts or climb the mast.
- (i) If the gear is fouled aloft and cannot be cleared with a boat hook, crew must stand on the bottom boards while clearing the foul.
- (j) Alternatively, the sails are to be lowered to clear it.

20. Handling in Rough Weather. Attention of the coxswains is drawn to the condition that may occur during sailing in rough weather. The precautions and remedial action that should be taken as laid down under these headings in Seamanship Manual (BR 67) page 5-77 to 5-92. All the coxswains and crew are to be fully conversant with these actions and must be able to put them into practice if the situation warrants it.

21. Drop Keel. In a small boat, when keel is lowered, it lowers the center of gravity of the boat and makes the boat more stabilized. When the keel is lowered, the resistance offered by the water to its surface reduces any tendency of the boat to roll but when the boat is under sail and making leeway, this lateral resistance will produce a capsizing movement. The movement is not appreciable under normal conditions of beating and reaching but may become dangerous if the boat is blown broadside to leeward by a sudden squall or if she yaws badly or broaches to when running. The drop keel should always be raised if there is chance of the boat running aground because if it hits the bottom not only might it become bent which might prevent it from being raised, it may also capsize the boat or even split her open.

22. Safety Boat. A minimum of one power boat should always remain available as safety boat during the conduct of the regatta. The safety boat should carry the following: -

- (a) One swimmer qualified in life saving.
- (b) Two life buoys.
- (c) Six spare life jackets.

23. Safety Officer. A safety and rescue officer is to be detailed by name by conducting Directorate. This officer will be responsible for ensuring safety during practices and during the Regatta.

24. Conclusion. The above rules are only general guidelines for the safety of these expeditions, they are by no means comprehensive and are to be read in conjunction with Manual of Seamanship (BR 67) 1995 edition and other relevant publications. Where there has been a departure in these rules from those laid down in the Manual of Seamanship 1995 edition, the Seamanship manual will supersede these instructions.

NCC SONG "HUM SAB BHARTIYA HAIN"

Hum Sab Bhartiya Hain, Hum Sab Bhartiya Hain.

Apni Manzil Ek Hai, Ha, Ha, Ha, Ek Hai, Ho, Ho, Ho, Ho, Ek Hai.

Hum Sab Bhartiya Hain

Kashmir Ki Dharti Rani Hai

Sartaj Himalaya Hai

Sadiyon Se Hamne Isko Apne Khoon Se Pala Hai

“Desh Ki Raksha Ki Khatir Hum Shamshir Utha Lenge,

Hum Shamshir Utha Lenge

Bikhre-Bikhre Tarey Hain Hum Lekin Jhilmil Ek hai

Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha, Ek Hai

Hum Sab Bhartiya Hain

Mandir Gurudwara Bhi Hain Yahan

Aur Masjid Bhi Hai Yahan

Girja Ka Hai Ghadiyal Kahin

Mullah Ki Kahin Hai Ajaan

Ek Hi Apna Ram Hai, Ek Hi Hai Allah Taala Hai,

Ek Hi Allah Taala Hai, Rang Birange Deepak Hain Hum,

Ek Jagmag Ek Hai Ha, Ha, Ha, Ek Hai, Ho, Ho, Ho, Ek Hai,

Hum Sab Bhartiya Hain, Hum Sab Bhartiya Hain.
